

legislation of our Committee on International Relations and other committees that have legislative authority over funds appropriated in this Act.

Mr. CALLAHAN. Mr. Chairman, in the essence of time, I am willing to concede the point of order.

Mr. GILMAN. Mr. Chairman, I thank the gentleman for his comments.

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair is prepared to rule.

The Chair finds that the provision removes earmarks and limitations contained in existing law. Similarly, the provision addresses earmarks and limitations in subsequent acts. As such, the provision constitutes legislation in violation of clause 2 of rule XXI. The point of order is sustained and the provision is stricken from the bill.

Mr. GILMAN. Mr. Chairman, may I proceed for an additional minute?

The CHAIRMAN. Without objection, the gentleman from New York (Mr. GILMAN) is permitted to extend his remarks after the ruling on the point of order.

Mr. GILMAN. Although I am on my feet to object to a particular provision—

The CHAIRMAN. If the gentleman will suspend, the Chair has ruled on the point of order.

Mr. GILMAN. I am not discussing the point of order, Mr. Chairman, just a comment to make about our distinguished chairman.

The CHAIRMAN. The order of the House does not provide for any Member other than the chairman and the ranking member or their designees to strike the requisite number of words for purposes of debate.

Mr. GILMAN. Mr. Chairman, those authorities include the authority to set minimum funding levels and earmarks in ways that do not constitute appropriations.

Moreover, the House may have decided, or may decide in the future, to permit a variety of legislative actions in other Acts in particular, appropriate, cases and such actions should not be overridden by this sort of proviso. I would hasten to add that in most if not all cases our inclinations on earmarks and minimum funding levels have been worked out amicably with the Committee on Appropriations.

The fact that this provision, which is a law intended to apply during the year of its enactment only, is repeated from a previous year does not relieve it from being characterized as legislation, and I would refer to the authority cited in Section 1052 of the House Rules Manual, that is, Hinds' Precedents, Volume IV, Section 3822.

Accordingly, Mr. Chairman, I must respectfully insist on my point of order.

The CHAIRMAN. Are there further amendments to this section of the bill? If not, the Clerk will read.

The Clerk read as follows:
